

5th April 2017

Dear Parents,

On Friday 28th April, Lugg Class will be visiting Think Tank in Birmingham. Instead of travelling by coach we will be travelling by train. This will be an exciting and possibly new experience for the children. We will be catching the 7.32am train from Hereford Station and then catching the 2.49pm Train back from Birmingham which will arrive in Hereford at 4.19pm. Please can you arrange to drop and collect your child at Hereford Train Station where Mrs Barton and I will be waiting.

Whilst we are at Think Tank we will explore all of the different galleries and will also be taking part in a workshop called Destination Space which will help us with our latest topic.

The children will need to wear their full school uniform, a packed lunch (preferably in a plastic bag so we can dispose of it after eating), a drink and a snack. Your child will be given the opportunity to visit the shop; however spending money should be no more than £4.00 and kept in a named wallet or purse. Mrs Oakley will look after the children's money.

If your child suffers from travel sickness, please can you ensure they have taken their medication before travelling and have medication for the return journey. Please hand this to myself or Mrs Barton in a named envelope on the day.

The cost of the trip will be £13.35 per child. Please make this payment via your ParentPay account by Monday 24th April 2017. I have three adult spaces available, if you would like to come along please come and speak to me. If I have more than three offers I will pick the names out of a hat.

If you have any concerns please feel free to come and speak to me.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Oakley
