

Family Values

Our Christian Value of the month is...

Humility

“These are the few ways we can practice humility:

- To speak as little as possible of one's self.
- To mind one's own business.
- Not to want to manage other people's affairs.
- To avoid curiosity.
- To accept contradictions and correction cheerfully.
- To pass over the mistakes of others.
- To accept insults and injuries.
- To accept being slighted, forgotten and disliked.
- To be kind and gentle even under provocation.
- Never to stand on one's dignity.
- To choose always the hardest.”

Mother Teresa, The Joy in Loving: A Guide to Daily Living

The picture of humility in the Bible is one of being comfortable with who you are and putting others first.

A strong person who loves others.

“ Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit , but in humility consider others better than yourselves”

Phillippians2:3

Showing Humility in our Lives.

Good Choices

- Being humble
- Being thankful for our talents and abilities
- Accepting advice

Poor Choices

- Being boastful
- Insisting on being first and thinking we are the best
- Ignoring advice

Family Values Activity

Happy New Year everyone !

At the start of the new year it is traditional to make some new year’s resolutions. To help you think about this month’s value more carefully can you write some resolutions for 2017 that will help you to show humility throughout the new year. Bring your ideas into school to share with others.

Don’t forget there are 10 House Points available for completing the Family Values activity.
