The Mordiford Mail

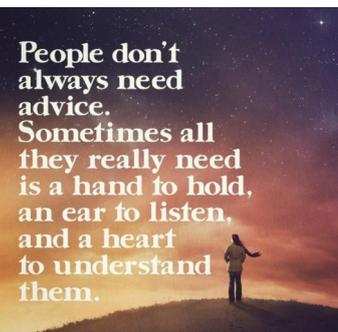

Have a lovely half-term!

It sounds as if the children (and adults) had a wonderful time in Poland this week! Please see twitter for pictures of what they have got up to and we look forward to hearing more about it after half-term. Here are a few photo's for those who don't have access to twitter...

Don't forget...

- Years 3 and 5 must have their swimming kits the first day back (Monday 4th June).
- The Wye Class trip to Nature in Art is on Wednesday 6th June, don't forget a packed lunch!

We have numerous clothing items in the school office waiting to be returned to their owners! We also have a car seat which has been here for some time. If you think this may belong to you please visit the school office to check.

As of the next academic year we will have a smart new PE kit. This is now available for you to view in different sizes, and try on in the Severn Suite. Order forms are currently available from the school office (will be placed on Parent Pay at a later date) and all orders need to be made through the school. For children entering Year 6 the kit is optional.

Stars of the Week

Eva (Rec)

For always having a sunny smile and a positive attitude towards learning.

Nathan (Yr1)

We will miss you lots in Monnow Class but we all wish you lots of happy times on your new adventure in America. Remember to keep in touch.

Arrow Class (Yr2)

You have been superstars, facing the challenges of the last few weeks with maturity as well as plenty of laughter. Your sense of fun was also a pleasure to see during our (very wet) trip to Forest School this morning. Have a great Half Term.

Florence (Yr3)

Super work across the curriculum. Great handwriting and more confident approach to all her work.

Nia (Yr4)

For writing an excellent, assertive and persuasive magazine article on changes we can make to stop deforestation in the Amazon Rainforest. Well done Nia! (You will make a fine Prime Minister one day).

James (Yr5)

For brilliant explanations in Science. You bring super ideas, questions and a positive attitude.

Hamish (Yr6)

For superb care, detail and accuracy in your writing. You have shown fantastic attitude and application.

Class Photographs

In last week's newsletter we requested all forms be back in by Monday 4th June. However, as you are aware, the photo's haven't arrived at school yet. You will receive the proofs as soon as we get them, hopefully the first week back after half term and then you will have a week to place all orders.

Well done to Monnow Class for their lovely assembly about Noah and his Ark on Wednesday morning. Miss Quinn is very proud of you all.
