Summary of some of the typical comments:

“ We think the weekly newsletter is excellent and a great way of communicating general information to parents”
 “It would be nice to have more communication with the class teacher re child's progress/behaviour etc. rather than just 2x parent meetings and the reports.”
 “ The school is welcoming and has exciting learning experiences”
 “ I think that there could be a little more homework to encourage learning at home”
 “ We feel that homework and weekly spellings can be too much every week”
 “ We think that home work should be consistent across the school e.g. always set same day/due in same day”
 “ I feel that homework is very important because it gets children into the habit of doing it and it engages parents, giving an understanding of what the child is doing at any given time”
 “It would be better if the information on the school website was more consistent”
 “ We are asked to contribute to displays but never see them”
 “ Tapestry (used in Lugg) is an excellent way of keeping us updated”
 “The children really love being at this school. Leadership is excellent and the school itself is welcoming and has exciting learning opportunities”
 “ The dinner menu is a concern as cheeseburger and wedges(to pick one day) is not a healthy option”
 “ an information evening prior to the year starting, so that parents are aware of learning techniques eg phonics”
 “Once in school we feel the children are 100% safe, the external arrangements such as street parking, drop off facilities and pedestrian crossing area are very unsafe”
 “ Parents do not get invited into school often enough...we would like to see how achievement assemblies work”
 “ Mordiford is an excellent school providing well rounded educational opportunities for all of its pupils”
 “ We do not feel that there is enough feedback on our child's progress and development”
 “We would like Meet the Teacher meetings before our child moves into the new class”
 “We very much like the school philosophy of learning and using the environment around them to provide excellent learning opportunities and experiences”
 “ I have two incredibly happy children who enjoy coming to school and soak up all of the wonderful experiences that are given to them”
