When the world says, "Give up," Hope whispers, "Try it one more time."

HOPE
HOPE IS THE PLACE WHERE YOU WANT TO GO
HOPE IS THE PERSON WHO YOU WANT TO KNOW

AND HOPE IS THE FUTURE FOR ME AND FOR YOU

Family Values activities:

KITES

Human Rights are universal; they belong to all of us. Kites are often a symbol of hope and freedom, flying high.

- 1) On your kite template— colour it in or draw a scene in which they feel free. If they let go of their kite, where do they think it would go? Who might find it?
- 2) Let's Go Fly a Kite! - listen to this song

Can you make a kite? Or do you have your own kite?

On THURSDAY 22nd OCTOBER bring your kite into school and in the afternoon (2.15pm) we will have a Mordiford Kite fly — parents and friends are welcome to join us!!!

After a very different Spring and Summer term in 'lockdown' and in an increasingly difficult and turbulent world, it's important that we remain optimistic and know that there is still hope regardless of tough situations.

When children and adults learn about the importance of hope in their lives it builds their character and it teaches them to become more service-oriented in their relationship to others around them.

It's also beneficial for us to learn to be hopeful because it shows us the necessity of perseverance and not giving up on our goals when obstacles arise.

This is an important thing for us to focus on as we start a new school year in very different circumstances to what we normally do!

"Learn from yesterday, live for today, hope for tomorrow. The important thing is not to stop questioning."

Albert Einstein

"Hope is being able to see that there is light despite all of the darkness."

Desmond Tutu

From the Bible:

'May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.' Romans 15:13

'Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the Lord.'

Psalms 31:24
