Book Week

Next week we are celebrating our school Book Week. There will be lots of exciting reading activities going on across the school all week. Dress up day on Friday.

Look out for pictures on Twitter!

- Competitions - prizes for the best reading journal for each class (please ensure reading records/ journals are in school - they should be in school every day!) Also, design a poster competition to encourage children to read. We would like to choose two for our library and one for each class reading area! Lots of prizes!

- "Catch us reading" - please send in photographs of your child reading in a cosy/ unusual spot! (Send to teacher by email or send in printed copy). Prize for most unusual photograph!

- Children welcome to bring in cushions/ throws (named please!) to make cosy reading nooks to be used throughout the week

- Parents are welcome to join in to read with small groups of their children or even to read to a class on Wednesday from 2pm! Please let your child's teacher know if you would like to come in.

- Friday 17th June - Dress Up Day - children and staff dress as a book character. We will have a special assembly and a book character catwalk. Winners of competitions will be announced too.

- Friday 17th June - Pop Up Book Sale! Brand new books for just £2! (RRP at least £5.99) An amazing range of facts, fiction, non-fiction, picture and board books! For every 10 books sold, school will receive a voucher for a free book! Please pop money into the yellow envelope which will be sent home with your child (see poster below) Your child can browse books or parents are invited to browse with their child/ren after school pick-up on Friday. Please help us supplement our school library!

Goodbye Mrs Broadbent

Today we wished farewell to Mrs Broadbent. Year 2 and Year 4 would like to thank you for all your help. The children and Staff will really miss you.

We wish you all the best for the future.

Beacon Lighting

Toby, one of our Y6 pupils had the honour of lighting the beacon and reading the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Proclamation at Swardon Quarry. We are very proud - what a fantastic job he did!

Free access to online training for parents

Herefordshire Council are offering free courses for all parents in whatever stage of parenting they are in:

- Understanding your pregnancy
- Understanding your baby
- Understanding your child (with addition needs)
- Understanding your teenager

Take advantage of this pre-paid, locally funded offer, www.inourplace.co.uk Access code: APPLEHERE. Create an account (or sign in), and start learning!

Thank you to the Harvey family for bringing their macaw, Beaky, to meet us on Wednesday morning. The children were really interested and asked some excellent questions. This brought Year 4's geography topic of South America and the Amazon Rainforest to life!

Platinum Jubilee Books

The Department of Education have kindly given each child a free story book in celebration of the Queen's Platinum Jubilee which your child would have received today.

Prayer Corner

Dear Lord,

Thank you for seeing us through this week.

Thank you for the challenges and the blessings.

Thank you for your grace and love.

Please help us to love others with your love and be a source of kindness, comfort and encouragement to those around us this weekend.

In Jesus' name.

Amen
